KNUTSON IS CONFIRMED BY SENATE

Who Wins On Dry Bill? Both Claim Victory

WOULD BAR SEARCH OF DWELLINGS

Conference On Blaine Dry Bill Agrees On Changes; Hit Home Brew

BULLETIN.
The senate Friday afternoon adopted the conference committee report on the enforcement measure by a vote of 15 to 6. The bill now goes to the governor, who is expected to sign it and end the legislative fight which has marked the measure.

Who wins? That was a question that was heard at the capitol this morning following the unanimous agreement of the conference committee to which the enforcement measure had been referred to iron out the differences between the senate and assembly.

The report was greeted with acclamation by Gov. Blaine and his friends and also by the Anti-Saloon league and its friends. Both sides maintained that the victory was theirs. The bill as it comes from the conference committee provides:

- 1.—Adopted the wording of the 18th amendment in place of the section of Blaine's bill regarding the manufacture of home brew.
- 2.—Provided that a "still, mash or moonshine" should be prima facie evidence.
- 3.—Exempted the appointees of the prohibition commissioner from civil service.
- 4.—Added a section exempting homes from "search and seizure" unless found to be nuisances.

The bill as recommended by the conference committee was adopted by the assembly this morning by a vote of 54 to 11. Both ways and drys voted for the adoption of the conference report. Mr. Matheson voted for the adoption of the conference report.

The governor's friends maintain that the section exempting homes from search and seizure is a big victory for the executive. The bill incorporates the provisions of the Volstead act on the manufacture, sale and transport of intoxicating liquor.

The big bone of contention in the bill agreed upon will center around the word "manufacture." Does the word "manufacture" contemplate the idea of sale? If Aunt Jennie makes some dandelion wine has she "manufactured" wine? The Anti-Saloon people say "Yes" and the governor's friends say "No."

The moonshine section of the governor's bill, particularly stressed by him in his message to the legislature, is further strengthened by the committee to include, besides the still, mash or moonshine, as prima facie evidence of illicit manufacture.

CHELLIS ONCE LOGGER IN NORTHERN WOODS; HEIL AN EX-SHERIFF

New U. S. Marshal And Chief Deputy For Western Wisconsin District Had Interesting Careers In State

Frank Heil

W. R. Chellis

Coming to Madison with a record of active law enforcement which extended over a period of practically 10 years, W. R. Chellis, formerly of Wausau, appointed U. S. marshal of the western district of Wisconsin, began his duty in that office on June 1 and resumed his office activities to a greater extent than ever before, having under his jurisdiction the whole western half of the state.

Mr. Chellis was born in New Hampshire and came to Green county, Wis., with his parents when yet a lad. In Green county he spent his boyhood at Exeter, moving to Wausau in 1881. He found work in the logging camps and on the rivers in northern Wisconsin. He took an early interest in the affairs of the Republican party in Marathon county and though not actively affiliated with it until several years later, he continued an ardent supporter. He served two years in the city council of Wausau and left that body to join the police department, serving two years there. He was appointed under-sheriff of Marathon county and at the succeeding election was named head of that department. For four years he continued in the service as sheriff, leaving that office to become registrar of deeds, which office he held six years.

Baltimore Man Heads International Kiwanis

CLEVELAND, O.—Harry E. Karr, attorney, Baltimore, Md., was elected president of the International Kiwanis club at Friday's session of the convention.

For a time he went into business for himself, engaging in the real estate and insurance game in 1914. Shortly after he was elected secretary of the Wausau Chamber of Commerce and was holding that position when, on April 27, 1921, he was appointed U. S. marshal. Mr. Chellis was honored by the Marathon county republican committee as chairman of that organization and has been intermittently affiliated with the party for the past 25 years. Mr. Chellis succeeds Frank O'Connor, a Democratic appointee of the Wilson administration.

Frank Heil, born in Cuba City, Wis., who was named chief deputy U. S. marshal of the western district of Wisconsin, was formerly sheriff of Grant county, having held that office in 1915-16 and in 1919-20. Mr. Heil has always been an active supporter of the Republican party, though never affiliated with the organization. He moved from Cuba City to Besenbøl while a young man, but made his residence at Lancaster during his terms as sheriff. He served as mayor of Cuba City in 1905-6 and was for a time treasurer of the town of Smeltzer, Grant county. Mr. Heil replaces Chief Deputy Marshal John P. LaMont, appointed by Frank O'Connor, formerly marshal of the Wilson administration.

ANOTHER REAL ESTATE MAN UP

William Norton Before State Board; Case Under Advisement

The Wisconsin Real Estate Brokers board held a hearing Thursday afternoon on complaint of Albert Scholthess of Lake Mills, against William Norton, a Madison real estate broker. Outside of character witnesses for Mr. Norton, the only witness examined was Mr. Scholthess, and before his testimony was completed a motion was made by Attorney Carl Hill, for Mr. Norton, that the complaint be dismissed on the ground that no legal case had been shown. The motion was taken under advisement. The testimony developed that Mr. Norton had little to do with the deal except showing the farm sold by Scholthess, and it was Mr. Hill's contention that the testimony by Mr. Scholthess showed no representation that could in any way be regarded as fraudulent. A decision in the case of Paul Kolbecker vs. T. C. Hayes will be rendered in the near future.

OLE NORSMAN HAS STROKE; IS IMPROVING

Veteran City Clerk Is Overcome While At Work; 70 Years Old

Old S. Norsman, city clerk for almost 30 years, suffered a stroke of paralysis while at work in his office in the city hall Thursday afternoon. He was rushed to his home, 609 Howard place, by L. A. Smith, superintendent of the water department, in the latter's car. He was said to be slightly better Friday morning, but as the day advanced he was forced to retire and is still in bed with the constant attention of Dr. A. E. Brown. The muscles of his face and right side were affected and when he was taken home his feeble attempts to speak were retarded by the contraction of the lip muscles.

At his home this morning, he was said to be feeling a little better. He arose and walked to the bathroom but went back to bed a few minutes later. His right side was paralyzed and he is unable to use his right arm and hand to advantage. Mr. Norsman suffered a similar stroke about two years ago and was incapacitated for many months. Several city officials, including Mayor Kittleson, called on the veteran employee of the city Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Norsman is 70 years old. He was elected city clerk following the resignation of John Cerscott, Sr., on April 1, 1890. Actress, Kin Of Dvorak Is Up In Court

Antoinette Dvorak, actress, and niece of the noted musical composer and author of Humoresque, was arraigned in the Superior court this morning charged with the theft of a fur coat from the Standard Fur Co. The girl was brought from Milwaukee by Mrs. Morgan Griffiths, police woman.

Miss Dvorak pleaded not guilty to before Judge A. C. Hopmann. According to the story related by Miss Dvorak, she had purchased a $500 dollar fur coat in New York. It was showing signs of wear and while in Madison recently she took it to a local fur company and made arrangements to have the coat made into a cape. The manager of the company, she says, offered to let her wear another fur coat while her own was being altered. She took the coat. The manager, she asserts told her that if she had a chance to sell the coat, she could do so. Her arrest in Milwaukee came as a very unpleasant surprise she says.

Tomorrow morning a preliminary hearing will be held. Miss Dvorak telegraphed to Chicago today for $500 and will furnish her own bond. J. J. MacDonald will represent Miss Dvorak. She entered the courtroom this morning at a modest gait and smiled at court attaches. She was clad in a trim blue suit and carried her jacket on her arm. When asked by Judge Hopmann what plea she would make, she replied in broken English: "I am not guilty."

IS OVERCOME AS GAS TANK SPRINGS LEAK

Luther Swensen In Hospital; Gasoline Floods Whole City Block

Luther Swensen, manager of the Forward Oil Co., was overcome by gasoline fumes late Friday morning when a plug came out of the bottom of a gasoline car standing on the tracks of the Forward Oil Co., East Washington ave.

When Mr. Swensen noticed gasoline escaping from the bottom of the car, he crawled under it and tried to tighten the plug. The plug dropped off and gasoline saturated his clothing and filled his eyes, nose and throat. He was suffocated immediately. The pump room from the Central fire station was rushed to the scene, and within a few minutes he recovered consciousness. Shortly afterwards he was taken to the St. Mary's hospital, where it is reported that he will be for several days.

The fire department was called to block off the street and avoid any danger that might occur from fire or exhausts from automobiles that passed. The gutter between the Forward Oil Co. and the Case building was a miniature river of gasoline. Over half of the car was emptied. First reports said that three men were overcome.

BIG TANGLE IN DEFEAT OF FIRST BILL

Assembly Suddenly Reverses Itself And Financial Program Upset; Funds To Be Needed

The legislative program was thrown into turmoil today when the assembly, in what it was agreed would be the closing hours of the session, reconsidered its vote on the first highway privilege tax bill, and then killed the measure which would raise $4,000,000 annually by a vote of 45 to 33.

This stand makes either a continued session or a special session inevitable, in order that a policy may be provided for obtaining funds with which to carry on its highway work.

The assembly action was totally unexpected, since the first bill had gone to third reading by a two to one vote early in the week. It had been practically agreed that it would be rushed through to the governor today.

Assemblyman Dahl, author of various sur-tax proposals, took the floor against the measure when it came up for reconsideration. In a speech lasting nearly an hour he flayed the proposal from every angle, declaring that it opened the way to an over-comprehensive highway program when the state was not prepared for it.

His speech swung many members who had previously stood by the finance committee in its recommendations, upon acceptance of which depended their support that no additional taxes would be necessary for the coming biennium. No one defended the bill on the floor today, because of their belief that passage was certain.

Funds are available for highway construction for the present year, but it will be necessary for the state to devise means of raising money to meet the federal aid of 1922-23 which will total $2,500,000.

Both houses of the legislature convened today under agreement to complete the session before adjournment.

The fifty-fifth legislature will not go out of existence since die for another two weeks, because of constitutional provision that the governor must have at least 10 days in which to pass on bills. During that time a skeleton organization will remain to receive communications from Gov. Blaine.

De Valera Is Arrested And Again Released

The house was searched and, as a number of incriminating documents were found, the sole occupant was arrested by the troops, who did not know his identity. Mr. de Valera was taken to headquarters and was recognized immediately. As soon as the arrest was reported to general headquarters in Dublin the prisoner was ordered released immediately under a general order from Prime Minister Lloyd George that he be not interfered with.

Landlords Are Given A Jolt For A Minute

Madison people who are objecting to high rents and are looking for some means of reaching landlords whom they hold guilty of extortion, got a thrill this morning. Assemblyman Higgins bobbed up in the assembly with a bill creating a rent bureau in the railroad commission to take the place of the one declared unconstitutional by the supreme court. The Higgins measure made the bill applicable to the entire state. This met the objection of the original measure unconstitutional because it applied only to Milwaukee.

Higgins got his measure through the assembly by a vote of 51 to 23. Then it went to the senate where it was bumped and killed by a vote of 16 to 7.

Does Man Need Diploma To Be Public Servant?

HB following is the message sent to the senate this morning by Gov. Blaine resubmitting the name of Reuben G. Knutson of La Crosse as a member of the industrial commission to succeed George P. Hambrecht, whose term expires July 1. "I resubmit the name of Mr. Knutson for the reason that there seems to have been some confusion and misapprehension respecting his qualifications and competency. "I assume it is true that Mr. Knutson did not go beyond the curriculum of the common schools, so far as an education is obtainable in a school.

"This is the first time that I have ever heard it suggested that a college education is necessary to equip citizens for public service. Had this suggestion always obtained in the history of our country, the world and humanity would have been deprived of the services of the greatest character in all the world's history since the birth of Christ. The world would have been deprived of the services and the devotion to public interests of hundreds upon hundreds of public officials who never crossed the threshold of an educational institution beyond the grades.

"I am assured by those who have every opportunity to know, and from my own personal observation, that Mr. Knutson is an intelligent, trained far beyond the possibilities of the mere possession of a diploma.

"I also understand that a majority of the senate strenuously contended that because Mr. Knutson is a craftsman and belongs to a labor organization, that he should not be confirmed, and the point, as I understand it, is the recognition of labor as such and as a class in making the nomination.

"I do not know upon what facts such contention is based. I might, if the senate will accept my assurance, assure the senate that Mr. Knutson's appointment did not deprive its inception upon the mere recognition of labor as a class. I recognized the fact in nominating Mr. Knutson, that men who are trained in some craft and who understand the problems of labor, that such men, independent of any alleged class recognition, can bring to the services of the state a knowledge and experience which others do not possess and which is very much desired in public service.

"There are some three hundred to four hundred thousand men, women and children engaged in industry. Only those who have come in close contact with that great multitude have the necessary to properly administer the laws particularly affecting this great mass of working men, women and children.

"I, therefore, submitted the name of Mr. Knutson, because he is particularly qualified to deal with the problems constantly coming before the industrial commission, with respect to which lawyers are not trained and whose vision sometimes is dimmed by reason of technical and unsupported theories.

"I do not perceive any just cause for the rejection of Mr. Knutson, simply because he happens to be a workman, engaged in a craft which highly develops the mind and those qualities so necessary to a complete and proper administration of all the functions of the industrial commission.

"I recognize the right of the senate to reject this nomination, but on the other hand, I believe it due the senate to have presented to them the facts so that they might have an opportunity to pass on this nomination influenced only by considerations for the most complete administration of the functions of the industrial commission."

GOVERNOR'S APPOINTMENT IS SUPPORTED

Senate Votes 15 To 10 For Confirmation As Blaine Resubmits Name

ROLL CALL ON KNUTSON'S CONFIRMATION.
For confirmation—Anderson, Arnold, Beyer, Bilgrien, Demhardt, Hirsch, Huber, Kleist, Moran, Olson, Peterson, Ridgway, Severson, Skogmo, Staudenmayer—15.
Against confirmation—Beck, Burke, Clark, Czerwinski, Kucuk, Lange, Nye, Roethe, Smith, Wetden—10.

BY WILLIAM T. EVJUE.
Reuben G. Knutson of La Crosse will become a member of the industrial commission on July 1. After Knutson's name had been rejected by the senate yesterday, Gov. Blaine re-submitted his name in a message today that did much to break down the opposition to Knutson. He was confirmed by a vote of 15 to 10.

Yesterday senators objected to Mr. Knutson because it was declared that he only had a common school education and because he represented labor as a class.

Gov. Blaine today sent in a communication to the senate in which he wanted to know when a college diploma has been the only requisite for a public servant.

Regarding the recognition of labor Senator Ridgway asked Senator Smith, who opposed Knutson's confirmation, if the public utilities and big business in the state had not been pretty well represented on the railroad commission for a number of years.

Senator Skogmo, who voted against Knutson yesterday, changed his vote today. He stated that he voted against Knutson because he thought retain Hambrecht whom he lauded as a public servant. When said Senator Skogmo, he learned there was no chance for Hambrecht he had decided to vote for Knutson and he hoped that Knutson will make as good an official as Hambrecht has made.

Senator Clark denied that he had said that Knutson was "an eighth grade man." He said that he felt that Knutson only had a common school education and therefore might not be fitted to hold the position. Senators Huber and Severson spoke in favor of Knutson's confirmation.

EQUITY FORMS DAIRYMEN BODY

Cooperative Organization Is Launched At Meeting Here

The Wisconsin Equity Dairymen's Co-operative association came into being as a result of deliberations by the executive committee of the Wisconsin union, A. S. of E., held late Thursday. This association will probably be launched as a major activity of the Equity in an effort to campaign for more members, as the contracts specified in the by-laws call for the payment of $5 as dues to the state union. The plan for the new dairy marketing body was outlined by Charles Holman of the National Milk Producers' federation, formerly editor of the University of Wisconsin press bulletin.

That the Equity will start a state-wide aggressive drive at once was the statement of the officers last night, as the society knows it has a fight on its hands to restore confidence and maintain its position in competition with the farm bureau federation movement.

It was said that 38 counties were represented by one delegate each at the meeting this week. Resolutions of protest against using the name of Equity locals in starting rival organizations, and a call for the payment of withheld dues by certain delinquent local secretaries were features of the convention. The next annual convention will probably be held at Eau Claire.

In a resolution to members of congress from Wisconsin and Senators La Follette and Lenroot, the resolutions committee went on record as follows:

3. We ask that the federal farm loan act be strengthened.
4. We heartily endorse the "truth in fabric" bill.
5. We oppose and denounce the general sales tax.
6. We endorse the proposed Great Lakes to Ocean waterway.
7. We urge effective packer legislation.
8. We ask for the passage of the Capper-Volstead bill, legalizing collective agricultural bargaining.
9. We oppose any move to weaken the federal trade commission.

The letter was signed by J. Alex Rayburn, Joseph Krenschreiter and William M. Hurst and was unanimously adopted by the conference. Following is a list of the delegates and the counties which they represented:

"A navy beyond that is a waste of money. WHAT A WOMAN SHOULD DO WHEN SHE IS WEAK AND NERVOUS

THOUSANDS OF WOMEN HAVE SURPRISINGLY INCREASED THEIR STRENGTH, ENERGY AND ENDURANCE IN TWO WEEKS BY THIS SIMPLE EXPERIMENT.

On account of the terrible weakness, nervousness and alarming symptoms, which are often produced by iron starvation of the blood, the sufferer frequently never suspects the real cause of her trouble but thinks she has some other ailment. As a result of iron starvation you may suffer from headaches, dizziness, shortness of breath or better, palpitation, pains across the back, loss of memory, weak will power, melancholy or the "blues," disturbed digestion, loss of appetite, sleepless nights, night sweats and so on. In such cases do not wait until you go all to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration but eat more spinach and green vegetables and take organic iron like Nuxated Iron with them for a while and see what a difference it makes. But be sure the iron you take is organic iron and not metallic iron which people usually take. Metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron, while organic iron like Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. Beware of substitutes. Look for the name "Nuxated" on every package and the letters N. I. on every tablet. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

1,000 PICNIC IN MT. HOREB

Breeders Stage Outing On Peter Nace Farm On Thursday

Fully one thousand people held a pleasant picnic under the auspices of The Dane County Holstein-Friesian association at the Peter Nace farm, 2 miles north of Mount Horeb, Thursday. The occasion was the 5th annual summer meeting of the club.

C. O. Ruste, president of the association, presided, and addresses were delivered from the front porch of the Nace homestead while the large audience occupied the lawns. Refreshments were served to the speakers and special guests by Mrs. Nace and the association committee. The Nace family are old residents of Dane county, originally coming from Virginia, and their herd of more than 30 Holstein cattle was the center of interest.

Arrangements for the picnic were made by Secty. Sydney Gay, Jake Stolen, Henry Arneson, Olin Ruste, C. O. Ruste, and Peter Nace. Practically the entire population of the town of Springdale came to the picnic despite busy days in the hay fields. Speakers included A. C. Osterhuis, Oconomowoc, John Kelly, Baraboo, A. H. Sholtz of Oregon, Mrs. E. Donald Jones, Madison, and George McKerrrow of the state farm bureau. Several auto parties from Madison, Mount Horeb, Verona, Barneveld, Dodgeville and Oregon attended the picnic.

La Follette Opens New Attack on Rail Act

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Sen. La Follette started a flank attack on the transportation act on Thursday by way of the seasonal coal freight rate bill. He put in three amendments to the coal bill, one to repeal transportation provisions for rates on the basis of a 6 per cent property investment return. Another to restore intrastate rate to exclusive state jurisdiction, and a third to authorize freight rate making regardless of property value involved.

VIENNA—It is proposed to impose luxury taxes upon practically everything that cannot be considered a necessity, the uniform rate being 15 per cent. No exemptions are made regarding toys, music, confectionary and leather goods. Wedding rings are exempt.

Property Committee To Inspect Fire Stations

The city property committee of the common council will inspect three of Madison's fire stations on Saturday afternoon in preparation for a meeting next week at which some recommendation will be made asking for repairs. A new heating plant may be asked for No. 4 engine house and minor repairs will bring the cost to about $2,000. Between $300 and $400 will be spent on No. 3 station.

MELLON ASKS POWER TO REFUND LOANS

Harding Proposes Legislation Giving Secretary Of Treasury Full Authority

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Legislation granting the secretary of the treasury unlimited authority to arrange for the refunding of loans made to the allied governments during the war, as well as other obligations growing out of the war, was proposed on Thursday by President Harding in a communication to Sen. Penrose of the senate finance committee.

The president enclosed a letter prepared by Secy. Mellon outlining the status of the foreign obligations, which showed a grand total of $10,141,267,555, of which $9,435,225,329 represented obligations for advances made under Liberty bond acts. Obligations on account of the sale of surplus war materials, obligations received from the American relief administration and those held by the U. S. Grain corporation made up the grand total.

In his letter Mr. Mellon intimated that payment of principal or interest by the foreign governments at this time seemed impossible, and that doubt as to the authority of the secretary of the treasury to arrange for refunding made it difficult to formulate a plan that would best protect the interests of this nation. He felt the only satisfactory way would be to give the secretary of the treasury, with the approval of the president, unrestrained authority to work out the problem.

Sen. Penrose introduced a bill in the senate which would grant the authority requested, and announced that hearings would be begun on Wednesday, at which Mellon would explain his plans in detail. Sen. Penrose expressed belief that the legislation would be granted without serious opposition, but this opinion was not shared by all members of congress.

Letter From Harding
"I hope you can get the consistent Congress to find it expedient promptly to sanction such an act as that which is suggested by the enclosed draft," the President wrote Senator Penrose. "If the Congress will promptly sanction such a grant of authority, the Secretary of the Treasury may proceed to the prompt exercise of the powers granted him, and we reasonably may expect a satisfactory handling of the obligations due and the claims of our government which are awaiting settlement."

BLAINE VETOES BLEACHING BILL

Says Fraud Might Follow Use of Artificial Bleach

Gov. Blaine vetoed the assembly bill permitting manufacture of artificially bleached flour Friday on the ground that it would open up the way to fraud and deception, and would nullify the accomplishments which have resulted from the existing law prohibiting the use of chemicals in bleaching.

"The Wisconsin association of master bakers, consisting of a membership of about 300 bakers in the state, view with grave concern the efforts now being made to foist upon them chemically bleached flour," the governor says in his message. "What may contain certain impurities and such wheat brings less price to the farmer; yet when such wheat is ground into flour and artificially bleached it may have the same appearance as the flour may sell at the same price as the flour made from clean pure wheat."

In view of these facts, the governor said, he deemed it his duty to disapprove the bill.

HALPERIN ILLEGALLY DISMISSED, CLAIM; LOBBYIST VANISHES

Sergeant Must File Charges With Civil Service Body; Big Business Representatives On Floor For Months

The Halperin case evidently is not yet at an end.

That Halperin was irregularly dismissed and that the manner of his dismissal was illegal, was the contention made today.

Halperin is under civil service. The law provides that where an employee in the civil service is dismissed that charges shall be filed with the civil service commission and that the discharged employee shall be given a hearing. The law further states that any state official who does not follow this procedure shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be declared ineligible for office for five years.

The civil service commission stated this morning that Sergeant at Arms Cretney had filed no charges with the civil service commission against Halperin.

Complaint was filed with Mr. Cretney this morning against a big business lobbyist who has been sitting at the press table for several months. The rules provide that no lobbyist shall have the privileges of the floor when the assembly is in session. This lobbyist was at the press table this morning, but disappeared after complaint was made.

It is said that this lobbyist came here from Washington on the re-apportionment bill to seek to get legislation that would rearrange the districts of J. D. Beck and John M. Nelson so that they could be defeated for congress. It is also so reported that he has been busy throughout the session conferring with members on plans for the defeat of Senator LaFollette for re-election.

VOTE ON HALPERIN

The following is the vote by which the assembly sustained the sergeant at arms for firing Myron Halperin who wrote a letter criticizing the members of the legislature:

BECK ASKS LIST OF PROFITEERS TO MATCH DRAFT DODGER NAMES

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A resolution calling upon the treasury department to make public the profiteers who paid taxes on incomes in excess of 25 per cent on the invested capital during the war, was introduced in the house on Thursday by Rep. J. D. Beck of Wisconsin.

Mr. Beck declared that these war profiteers are holding back over $1,000,000,000 in taxes due the government, and his resolution asks that these names also be made public.

"Big interests," he said, "in order to divert attention from themselves, prevailed upon the war department to publish a list of names of deserters, a list which the department frankly confessed was not correct. Certain business interests are yelling their heads off about 'reds' and radicals."

"What the people want to know is who are the 'blacks.' Who are the ones responsible for low prices to the producer and high prices to the consumer? Who are the 'blacks' behind the big armament program of this country at a time when there isn't a government on the face of the earth that could put up a fight that would last over night?"

"We propose to keep hammering away until we find out, and when we do find out we will be able to solve the problem of discontent in this country."

FARM VALUES TAKE BIG GAIN

Total Value In U. S. Over 67 Billions; Badger Over 2 Billion

An increase of $32,994,839,687 was added to the value of the farms of the U. S. during the ten years ending Jan. 1, 1920. Figures released Thursday night by the bureau of the census place the full value at $67,795,865,384 as compared with $34,801,125,697 on April 15, 1910.

It represents an increase in value during the decade of 94.8 per cent. Thus the value of the agricultural plant has been climbing at the rate of about $2,500,000,000 a year.

The number of farms increased only 1.4 per cent during the decade; the total area of land in farms increased 8.7 per cent; the total acres of improved land increased only 6 per cent.

Seven states now report values for farm land and buildings in excess of $3,000,000,000. They are: Iowa, $7,601,772,290; Illinois, $7,416,583,851; Nebraska, $3,722,536,255; Texas, $3,717,799,544; Minnesota, $3,301,163,325; California, $3,073,811,109; Missouri, $3,069,967,700. Ten years ago Iowa and Illinois were the only states above the $3,000,000,000 mark.

Other nearby states register farm land and building values as follows: Indiana, $2,653,643,900; Michigan, $1,437,862,310; Wisconsin, $2,187,881,973; Kansas, $2,830,063,918.

During the ten years the value of the average farm—land and building—rose from $5,471 in 1910 to $10,514 in 1920. The average value per acre of land and buildings went to $70.94. In 1910 it was $39.60; in 1900 it was $19.81. Back in 1880, it was $16.32.

The insect powder which the girl ate was not of a very poisonous nature.

HARDING AND BANKERS DINE

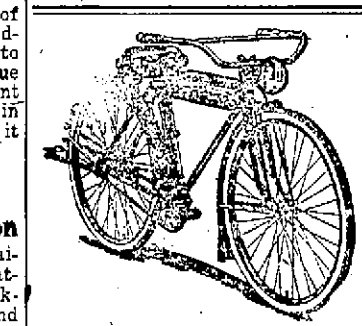

President Meets Mid-West Bankers At Conference

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The second White house conference attended by prominent bankers of the nation was held Thursday night, when President Harding, Secy. Mellon and Secy. Hoover discussed economic conditions with a group of nineteen financiers from the middle west. There were present also John R. Mitchell of the Federal reserve board, and Milton E. Ailes of the Bigga National bank, Washington, D. C.

The conference was preceded by a dinner. Domestic and international problems were taken up and a general discussion had concerning the best methods to aid in bringing relief from the present period of depression.

The relation of railroad rates to the stimulation of industry and the effect of foreign loans upon American industry were among the questions discussed, it is said. The president sought the viewpoint of the bankers concerning policies which might aid in their localities and contribute to the industrial revival of the entire nation.

It is said that a note of optimism was sounded by most of the bankers, who felt that a turn for the better would not be long delayed.

HE THOUGHT HIS TIME HAD COME

Is Firmly Convinced Tanlac Saved His Life Declares Minneapolis Man

"At the time I commenced taking Tanlac I was so sick I could hardly sit up in bed, but inside of a week from then I was down stairs, feeling better than I had in months," was the truly remarkable statement made by Henry Stuart, well known painter for the Twin City Street Railway Company, residing at 725 Ave. Southeast, Minneapolis.

"Yes, sir, Tanlac has done for me what a few months what I had suffered for fifteen years to get other medicines to do. I had asthma so bad all this time that my life was miserable, and my general health was completely undermined. At times I had such a tight feeling in my chest I could hardly get my breath, and the water would just stream from my eyes as I struggled for air. I had a persistent cough that gave me no end of trouble. Every year I kept getting more feeble, and last fall I had to stop work entirely. I was so thin my cheeks were sunken in, my clothes just hung on me like a sack, and I didn't care a straw for anything to eat."

"Well, I was just about ready for the graveyard, and I firmly believe there's where I would be now if it hadn't been for Tanlac. My friends all thought I would never be up again, too, and my wife was almost frantic. But almost from the first dose, Tanlac started me to eating, and now my appetite is so good I can hardly eat enough to satisfy it. My strength came back on the jump. I gained fifteen pounds in weight, and went back on the job so changed the boys hardly knew me. Since Tanlac has built up my general health so much my asthma scarcely bothers me enough for me to notice it any more. I sure am grateful to Tanlac!"—Adv.

Rabbit Ear Bows Trim Many Hats

By ELOISE

Although at this moment it is much too hot to think of anything like a hat, there are probably some women who must go shopping for vacation clothes, and a hat is often an essential thing. Then, too, there are the many convention of the summer months and one always wants new clothes for those in order to look prosperous. I just helped a friend who was going off "Conventions" buy a hat that "would go with everything, suit and frock alike." Do you know what she got? A jade green sailor with a roll brim and a jade green georgette band. It looks perfectly stunning with her white suit, smart and trim with her brown jersey and bright and cool with her dotted swisses and ginghams.

Another type of hat which may be rather universally worn is the type pictured here. It is decidedly a French type and is being adopted in a rather wholesale manner over here. It is fashioned somewhat in the poke effect and trimmed with the popular rabbit's ears bow. Fieat edged blue straw faced with blue taffeta and a blue taffeta bow is the color scheme.

Messrs Julius Daley and Edward Engeseth were groomsmen. Dinner was served to 175 guests on the lawn of the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Engeseth, in De Forest, which was followed by a reception. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson left on an extended trip to various places in California and on their return will reside in Madison. Madison guests were Mr. and Mrs. Max Lewer, Mrs. Cora Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Oetting and the Misses Clara Davidson, Anna O. Johnson, Tura and Nellie Rorge, and Ida Swalen and Richard Newman. Where the Quality is Higher than the Price

Billy Whiskers

By Frances Montgomery

While Billy had been chasing the ugly dog, the boy who owned the dog had only laughed at the chase and he sat down on the wall to wait for his dog to come back. As he sat there whistling and whistling he chanced to spy Daisy who was trying to hide in the tall grass.

Now if there was one thing more than another this boy had wanted for years it was a goat, so when he saw Daisy he looked cautiously around to see if there was any one in sight, and not seeing any one stirring about the house at the other end of the garden or out in the street, he jumped up, cut a piece of rope from a clothesline in the yard and before Daisy knew what he was up to, he had it around her neck and was dragging her through the hole in the fence.

Daisy tried to bleat to Stubby and Button, but Stubby had gone—he had followed Billy Jr., but Daisy did not know that. Then she bleated to Button and she heard a low mew above her head and looking up saw Button walking along on the top of the wall they were passing.

"Don't be afraid or pull back," mewed Button. "Go with the boy. I will follow, and tonight when he is in bed we will come and get you away."

"But how will you get me if he shuts me in a shed?"

"Never you fear, my dear. Billy can butt down the strongest shed that was ever built. Now don't cry and spoil your pretty eyes." This he said when he saw a tear roll out of her big blue eyes.

The boy shut Daisy in a rickety old shed about two blocks down the street or road, I should say, for it was not paved and there were no houses except the one they had seen and this one faced the street on the other side.

As soon as Button saw Daisy shut in he ran back to wait for the return of Billy and Stubby, so he could tell them where to find Daisy. Presently, he saw them coming and thought for fun he would lie flat on the wall so they could not see him, and hear what Billy Jr. would say when he found that his hide was gone. He could hear Billy's feet clattering over the stones and could tell just where they were without raising his head.

When Billy Jr. reached the opening in the wall and looked in and saw no Daisy, he exclaimed:

"I know it! She has gone to find me! Now we will have a great time finding her. She has never been alone in the city before, and there is no knowing how soon some one will catch her and shut her in where we cannot find her."

"You forget, Billy, that you have a friend with a nose that can find her where your brain, for once, would fail you."

"How stupid of me, Stubby, to forget, especially when you just tracked me and brought me back. But for you I would be running aimlessly up and down for hours." (But both of them had forgotten little Button.)

Gang in Alexandria

ALEXANDRIA—Judgment was given in the case of the gang which, in a comparatively short time, murdered 17 women in Alexandria. Two sisters, who headed the gang, and four men were sentenced to death. The assassins murdered women for their jewelry and then buried them.

RECIPES FOR A DAY

Flank Roast—Take a lean piece of fresh flank. Spread on board, spread well with dressing made from bread crumbs, minced onions, powdered sage (or other seasoning), salt and pepper. Roll and tie. Roll well in flour, salt and pepper. Melt two or more tablespoons of fat in kettle. Brown meat carefully on all sides. Pour in about two cups boiling water. Slice onion on top. Cover. Set in oven, cook one and one-half hours or more, according to size. Baste often.

Pineapple Salad—Shred pineapple, place on salad plates. Put one tablespoon whipped cream on either side, also one cherry or strawberry on top of cream. Sprinkle with chopped nuts. Serve with mayonnaise made with lemon.

SUGGESTIONS

To keep meal from jumping when making mush dampen it a little and mix the water well through it before pouring the whole thing into boiling water.

Add a teaspoon of cornstarch to your meringue and it will not fall so easily.

If there is ice cream left over and you wish to keep it, soak an envelope of gelatin in water a few minutes, dissolve it in boiling water and when cool, beat it into the ice cream. Turn into a mould and put it on ice to chill.

TESTED RECIPES.

Set cups on the stove to heat; put the flour in a bowl, making a well in the center of it; drop in the salt, the nine unbeaten eggs. Add the milk gradually, stirring in widening circles from the center. Bake in buttered muffin pans or in earthenware.

A Banquet That Was Almost A Tragedy

"Three years ago at a banquet I was stricken with acute indigestion. Two doctors worked over me for an hour before I came to. I had had severe colic attacks before, but nothing like that. No doctors or medicine gave me permanent help until a friend, who was at the banquet, advised me to take a course of May's Wonderful Remedy, which I did with wonderful results. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Adv.

At The Theaters

AT THE STAND.

The picture which is now being shown at the Strand theater is Lois Weber's latest photoplay, "To Please One Woman," which is described as a dramatic expose of some little known facts of married or near-married life. The story is laid in a country village near the sea and portrays the shadow cast upon two romances by the whims of a selfish woman. To satisfy her wants, her husband goes to ruin and a young doctor is lured from his small-town sweetheart. However in the end the tyrant woman is foiled. Miss Weber herself is the author of "To Please One Woman." Motion pictures of Madison, a comedy cartoon, and a Pathe Review will also be shown.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

The story of reincarnation forms the basis of a vivid and romantic picture called "Buried Treasure," the same title under which the story by F. Britten Austen was published in Hearst's Magazine, and when it was presented last night at a Paramount Cosmopolitan picture with beautiful Marion Davies as the heroine, the audience attested profound interest. Miss Davies is first shown in a prelude representing supposed antecedents of Pauline Vandermaulen in various epochs, each having the same soul as Pauline. During the story Pauline reads a pirate story and all of the characters appear as antecedents of the characters of the story proper. A Special Christy Comedy featuring Bobbie Vernon, "Comin' Thru the Rye," Miss Barbara Howard, soloist, and latest news weekly complete an excellent program.

BEARDSTOWN, Ky.—G. C. Duncan, while fishing near Wheatley, pulled from the Kentucky river a yellow catfish that weighed 62 pounds. He hooked his catch on a throw line and it took an hour to get him in the boat.

News Notes From Movieland

Would you pay a dollar or five for a drink of near-beer? The answer to this is "Yes, when Colleen Moore is the barmaid." Near-beer is worth whatever you may pay for it when Miss Moore hands it over with a smile and a merry glance. All dressed up as a wild and woolly westerner Miss Moore was one of the million-dollar cast at the actors' benefit staged at the Beverly Hills Speedway, near Hollywood.

This benefit was an event possible to no other place in the world except Hollywood—for in the cast were most of the famous stars of the stage and screen, together with many of the world's most celebrated authors.

The clever aggregation, who considered it an honor to sell everything from hot dogs to autographed books, and to do everything from telling fortunes to wearing costumes that weighed 100 pounds, collected $150,000 for the stars of the stage. Many of these stars, resplendent before the footlights a generation ago, have become dependent upon their more fortunate friends for support.

KERN TO FILM "POMPEII"

With his own story "The Unfoldment," virtually completed in celluloid form, George H. Kern now has designs on "The Last Days of Pompeii," which he believes to be one of the best bets available for a super-film production. And H. C. Schaper, president of the Producers Picture corporation of St. Louis, backers of the Kern productions, has wired the producer-director to "go ahead" on the immortal Bulwer-Lytton story.

"JUSTICE" TO BE FILMED

William Faversham will be the star of the Selznick Pictures production of John Galsworthy's drama "Justice." This announcement is made by Myron Selznick, vice president and production manager of the Selznick Pictures corporation, who previously stated that the coveted role of Falsler in the Galsworthy play would be assigned to one of the present Selznick stars.

Near East Drive Aids Children

A Starvation Victim.

Norton J. Williams, Dane county chairman, for the Near East relief, said to a group of workers at the Association of Commerce this morning, that unless America once again comes to the front, thousands of little ones will suffer. Mr. Williams said, "Yes, I know we are tired of drives, but these little children are tired too, not of drives, but of being hungry."

Mr. Williams announced that the reports of four teams which had turned part of their collections over to the headquarters amounted to $343, and that the industrial concerns in Madison were showing a good spirit in co-operating by taking the matter up with their employees.

Wife Admits Fake Robbery Caused Milwaukee Murder

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — Thomas Foran and his wife Edith are now under charges of first degree murder in connection with the death of Joseph Wamser, June 11.

Arrested in the office of District Attorney W. C. Zabel, Mrs. Foran is said to have broken down and confessed that a fake robbery arranged by herself to cover up the expenditure of $100 for clothes was responsible for the death of Wamser, construction engineer and innocent victim of the scheme.

She then told in detail how she had planned the robbery with extreme care that it might appear, not only to her husband but to the police, that some one had actually "jimmied" his way into the basement where the toolchest, containing the $100, had been placed, according to Police Captain McCrory.

Planned Each Move

She carefully planned each and every move, she is alleged to have confessed. The stranger who was said to have appeared in the morning with a message telling of the illness of her mother, was a part of the plot she had laid out, she is said to have admitted, in order to have an excuse for leaving the home with the children when the burglary was to take place.

Then, after police had conducted investigation into the robbery, wishing to impress her husband with the truth of the story, she screamed when she went into the bedroom, shrieking that there was "a face at the window."

Foran, she says, hearing her cries, dashed out of the house and accused Wamser, who was going by on his way home. She says that Wamser was not even near the house when she screamed.

Jimmy Demetral, brother of the champion, will take on Jack Miller, champion middleweight of Minneapolis at 150 pounds or thereabouts. A Milwaukee wrestler has been secured to meet Ray Richmond, Madison colored champ, in the opening event of the show. The two will meet at catchweights and will begin at 8:30. George Hitechock, wrestling instructor at the university, will referee. All of the men were in the city Friday morning and in the best of shape.

CARDS DEAL TWIN BEATING TO PITTSBURG

Ruth Gets No. 25 And Yanks Win; Cubs Take Third

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—St. Louis took games from Pittsburgh, the first 3 to 2 in 12 innings and the second 4 to 3. Leverage single and a double by Clemens in the 12th broke up the first game, while St. Louis' four runs, made in the first and second innings of the second game, proved sufficient.

Ruth Gets 25th.

BOSTON, Mass.—Babe Ruth made his 25th home run of the season in the fifth inning with Peckinpaugh on first base. The ball landed two-thirds of the way up the right field bleachers and is believed to have been the longest drive he ever made into those stands. New York won the final game of the series, 6 to 1.

Robins, G. Phillips, 4.

BROOKLYN, N. Y.—Brooklyn made it three straight from the Phillies, winning a listless game, 6 to 4. Causey was hit hard and received poor support. Griffith and Johnston made home runs.

Bruins Drop Reds.

CINCINNATI—With the Cubs whanging the ball when whanging was necessary, and York and Freeman pitching more effective ball than Babe Marquard, the Bruins put over one of those long sought third consecutive wins trimming the Reds 6 to 3. George Mauer, who fielded a fine game for the Evers' side, shared the striking honors with John L. Sullivan, each getting three hits, with doubles included.

Kerr Wins for Sox.

CHICAGO—Tris Speaker and his champions didn't cut much ice on the south side. They ran into a wonderful exhibition of pitching by wee Dickey Kerr and were on the zero end of a 6 to 0 score when nine innings had been concluded.

Macks, 5; Senators, 3.

PHILADELPHIA—Philadelphia won the deciding game of the series with Washington, 5 to 3, bunching 10 hits in three innings.

Thorns, 6; Tigers, 4.

DETROIT—Singles by McMann, Lee, Vangilder, and Tobin in the 12th gave St. Louis a 6 to 4 victory over Detroit.

Gioia, 10; Braves, 4.

NEW YORK—The New York Nationals turned the tables on Boston and easily won the last of the series, 10 to 4.

Cigaret Bootlegging Expected in Utah

SALT LAKE CITY—Sen. Edward Southwick's anti-cigaret law is in effect in Utah. As yet there have been no arrests, although there was smoking in the capital and other places. Cigaret bootlegging is expected new.

Orange Tree Bears Fruit Year Around

TAMPA, Fla.—Horticulturists have discovered an orange tree near here which bears fruit at all times of the year and which they believe will revolutionize the orange industry. It has been bearing continuously about eight years.

Uncle Sam Has an Immense Sweet Tooth

WASHINGTON—At the rate the U. S. is eating candy and ice cream it could annually build a half-dozen super-dreadnoughts, and in two years could build another Panama canal. Our consumption of sweets has almost quadrupled in five years.

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo.—Because Mrs. J. L. Cockerill requires special shoes, she and her husband drove from El Paso, N. M., 2,000 miles, to have a local shoemaker fit her. The trip and the shoes cost $84.

French Lack Confidence To Bet on Carpentier

PARIS—Frenchmen are still slow to back their confidence in Georges Carpentier with money. Several wagers of 6,000 to 4,000 francs that Carpentier will lose have been taken by Frenchmen, but they are holding out for three to one on Dempsey. Americans here have millions of francs to cover Carpentier money, but there is little in sight.

LIFE HISTORIES SHOW HOW FIGHTERS DIFFER

Champ Accredits Fight Ability to Blood of 3 Races

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK—William Harrison Dempsey the name by which the world's heavyweight champion was christened, was born 26 years ago in Manassas, Colo. The prefix "Jack" was assumed by the big fellow when he had grown to man's estate, and had chosen the fighting ring for a livelihood. As a fighter he had the idea and a good one, that by assuming the Christian name of "Jack" some of the glamour, if not the wonderful boxing science which the original Jack Dempsey, Brooklyn's famous "Nonpareil," possessed, as the middleweight title holder might revert to him.

Born of rugged-parents Dempsey claims that he has Irish, Scotch and Indian blood in his veins and insists that the fighting qualities for which all three of these races are famous have been bred in the bone and blood and have come to him in generous portions from his antecedents.

Most of Dempsey's early life was spent in the open on a farm but later he alternated by working in the mines except in harvest time when he found it more remunerative to devote his strength to reaping wheat and other crops in the grain belt. In this way Dempsey kept himself in fine physical condition, the hard labor developing the wonderful muscles which proved to be such a useful factor in his winning the world's heavyweight title.

Dempsey had very little early training for a career in the fighting arena. His first fight encounter was in an improvised ring at Montrose, Colo., when he was about 10 years old. His opponent was a young blacksmith, named Woods, whom he knocked out in the third round. This initial contest netted the now champion $25.

When he was 20 years old Dempsey began roving around, taking on a bout whenever the opportunity offered, while between times he returned to odd farming jobs or worked as a miner. His first eastern experience in the fighting arena was in New York city where he met Andre Anderson, Wild Burt Kenney and Lester Johnson, a negro, in 10 round no decision bouts. This was in 1916.

Dempsey's banner year was 1919 when after scoring five knockouts of one round each in Pennsylvania and Connecticut, he won the title by stopping the big Kansas Jess Willard at Toledo, O., on Independence day two years ago.

U. W. ROWING SQUAD ARRIVES FOR REGATTA

Scores of Rooters Accompany Oarsmen To Twin Ports

DULUTH, Wis.—Accompanied by scores of their admirers, the University of Wisconsin rowing squad, 25 strong, arrived at the Twin Ports Friday morning, and this afternoon had their first workout on the bay in preparation for the dual meet with the Duluth Boat club, Saturday.

Across the bay from the scene of the big races, Superior has taken full advantage of its opportunity to play host to the Badger crew and its scores of student followers, and rounds of entertainment have been arranged for the university visitors. A banquet started the pre-regatta celebration at Superior tonight. Many athletes in Wisconsin hall of fame are on the program for toasts.

The Badger crews will work out tomorrow on the bay, over the same course on which the meet will be staged Saturday.

To insure safety to occupants of the hundreds of small craft which usually line the racing course, Major E. H. Marks, in charge of the local United States Engineers' office, has cautioned navigators of water craft in the harbor to exercise care during the afternoon of the regatta. Pilots of the larger vessels are requested to operate slowly through the harbor so that there will be no swell to interfere with the racing program.

HARVARD-ELI CREWS BATTLE ON SATURDAY

"Regatta Crowd" Assemble Today to Witness Annual Fight

(By the Associated Press)
NEW LONDON, Conn.—Oarsmen of Harvard and Yale tonight await the fifty-third annual race between the varsity crews. It will be held on the Thames river four-mile course tomorrow afternoon. While the athletes who will man the shells rest in their camps at Red Top and Gales Ferry, a few miles from here, this little Connecticut city welcomes the influx of the "regatta crowd."

The "regatta girl," chaperoned by cautious parents who have made the trip by motor or by private yacht, lends a feminine touch rivaled only at the Harvard-Yale football game. The fact that both varsity fights in tomorrow's big race have been defeated more than once this spring dampens in no way the enthusiasm of the crowd which recognizes only that Harvard and Yale are rivals.

Both universities will send to the starting line tomorrow afternoon in the varsity race, eight generally thought to be inferior to those of last season, when Harvard defeated Yale by several lengths. Harvard has won only one varsity race, beating the weak Mass. Tech. eight, but losing to Cornell and also to Princeton and the Navy in a triangular contest. Yale has been defeated by Pennsylvania, and Columbia, in dual races, and by Princeton and Cornell in a triangular regatta while a Yale-eight also defeated the Mass. Tech. oarsmen.

However, both Eli Yale and John Harvard will show improved crews tomorrow. To both, the contest is the single aim throughout the training grind of several months. Victor's defeat on the Thames makes the season a success or a failure for the crews, irrespective of earlier results.

The university winning tomorrow takes the lead in the series of contests which has lasted more than half a century. Each has won the varsity race 26 times and that fact will stir the rivals to greater efforts than ever.

Also, the coaching system in the two camps, especially at Yale, will be under close observation. Yale's victory in 1919 has been the only Eli triumph over Harvard on the water since 1915. The surprising and overwhelming defeat on the Thames last year has been followed by several defeats and unsettled conditions in Yale rowing.

These conditions reached a climax three weeks ago when Guy Nickalls, in charge at Yale since 1914, with the exception of the war years, resigned and James Cordery, who had been Nickalls' assistant this year took charge of the Elis when they went into camp at Gales Ferry. During the training of the eight there, Cordery has been assisted by Churchill Peters, captain and stroke of the 1920 Yale varsity. Victory for Yale tomorrow will bring to Cordery recognition as the "miracle man" of Yale rowing history.

Willard Too Busy To See Big Fight

KANSAS CITY—Jess Willard, former heavyweight champion, told friends here today that he was too busy to be in Jersey City, N. J., on July 2 to witness the championship bout between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier. Asked what chance he thought Carpentier would have with the champion, Willard said: "I have not seen Dempsey for a long time." In response to a question as to whether he planned to fight Carpentier should the latter defeat Dempsey, Willard declared: "I am too busy to think of fighting anybody just now."

Here's why CAMELS are the quality cigarette

BECAUSE we put the utmost quality into this one brand. Camels are as good as it's possible for skill, money and lifelong knowledge of fine tobaccos to make a cigarette.

Nothing is too good for Camels. And bear this in mind! Everything is done to make Camels the best cigarette it's possible to buy. Nothing is done simply for show.

Take the Camel package for instance. It's the most perfect packing science can devise to protect cigarettes and keep them fresh. Heavy paper—secure foil wrapping—revenue stamp to seal the fold and make the package air-tight. But there's nothing flashy about it. You'll find no extra wrappers. No frills or furbelows.

Such things do not improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons. And remember—you must pay their extra cost or get lowered quality.

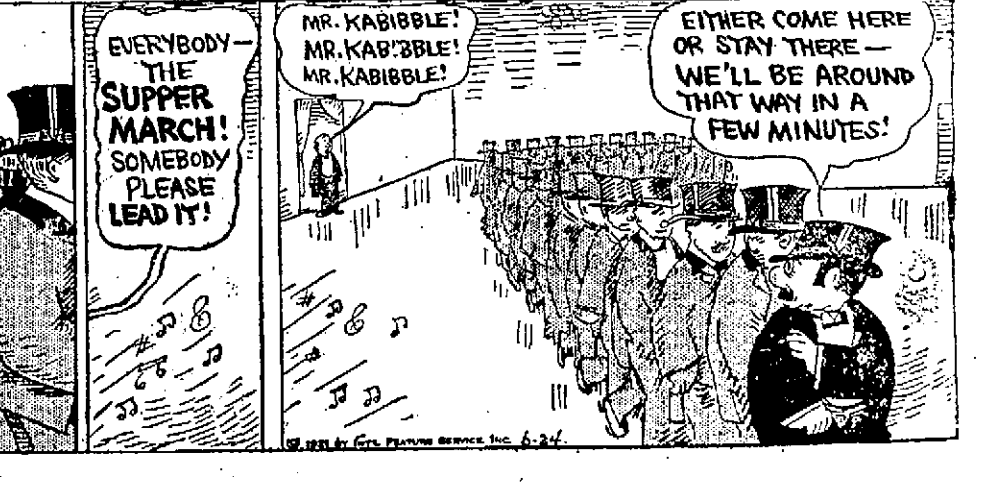

If you want the smoothest, mellowest, mildest cigarette you can imagine—and one entirely free from cigarettey aftertaste,

It's Camels for you.

WHEAT TAKES UPWARD SWING

Boost Is Caused By Continued Unfavorable Crop Report

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO—Wheat prices took a new upward swing Friday owing to continued unfavorable crop reports from the northwest. Heat and drought were unabated and there were reports that Black rust situation in South Dakota had become serious in several counties, with head smut infection at hand. On the opening advance, however, selling pressure increased. Opening quotations, which ranged from 1 1/4 to 1 1/2, higher, with July 1.31 1/4 to 1.32 1/4 and Sept. 1.24 1/4 to 1.25 1/4, were followed by moderate further gains and then something of a reaction. Subsequently weakness in the New York Stock market and foreign exchange counted against the bulls. Closing prices were unsettled at exactly the same figures as yesterday, July 1.30 1/4, @ 1.31 and Sept. 1.23 1/4, @ 1.24.

Corn

Corn was firmer with wheat. After opening 1/4 off to a like advance, including Sept. at 62 1/2 to 63 1/2, they sagged a little, but soon hardened and advanced.

Liberal arrivals together with shortage of domestic and foreign demand had a depressing effect. The close was weak 1/4 to 1/2 cents net lower with Sept. 62 1/2.

Oats

Oats reflected the action of other cereals, starting unchanged to a slight higher, and later scoring slight general gains.

Provision

Higher quotations on hogs helped to 1/2 provisions.

A Kid And A Lobbyist

If Your Politics Are O. K. The Assembly Will Not Bother About Rules

A KID eighteen or nineteen years old has been reprimanded by the assembly for "insubordination".

The lad, who shows evidences of having considerable power of observation, wrote a letter in criticism of the methods pursued at the end of the legislature in jamming stuff through.

There was no denial of the truth of the statements made by Halperin. In fact, one member brazenly stood before the assembly yesterday when the Dahl resolution came up and defended the right of a member to "duck" a roll call. Halperin was not guilty of telling an untruth but of "insubordination."

He violated the assembly "rules".

While the resolution was being considered yesterday there sat at the press table a sleek lobbyist who has been violating the rules throughout the entire session. The assembly rules provide that no lobbyist shall have the privileges of the floor during the time that the assembly is in session. Day in and day out, this lobbyist has been sitting at the press table IN FULL VIEW OF THE SERGEANT AT ARMS and in violation OF THE RULES OF THE ASSEMBLY and not once has he been molested.

Yesterday morning WHILE THE ASSEMBLY WAS IN SESSION this lobbyist IN PLAIN VIEW OF THE ENTIRE ASSEMBLY mounted the speaker's platform and proceeded to discuss some matter with one of the clerks.

This lobbyist came here with the statement that he is a representative of the republican national committee. The statement is made, however, that he is here for no other purpose than to lay plans for the defeat of Senator La Follette in the coming election. He was formerly connected with one of the big business firms of the state.

Now:

Just why is the assembly so jealous of its rules where a kid is concerned and why so indifferent and disinterested where a sleek lobbyist is concerned?

Is it all wrong to write a letter criticizing the reactionary members of the legislature and O. K. if you are in the business of trying to defeat La Follette and the progressives? Would Halperin have been fired if he had criticized the progressives or the socialists?

Let's have an answer to this question:

Why is the eye of the sergeant at arms peered so keenly for "insubordination" of the Halperin kind and why so blind where a lobbyist is sitting almost where the sergeant could lean over and kiss him?

An Opportunity For The Council

Should Give The East Side a Park

TONIGHT the common council will consider the recommendation of the finance committee in favor of the purchase of the Lake Shore park at the east entrance of the city.

The finance committee, after its careful examination of all aspects of this problem, has done a noteworthy thing that generations of children and adults, for that matter, will be grateful to them for.

It is an expression of faith in a bigger, and what is more important, a better Madison. It is a big step toward making the city a city beautiful and a city healthful.

The members of the finance committee deserve congratulations for their vision and public spirit.

Tonight the members of the common council will have an opportunity to record themselves on the honor roll of Madison for having done for it a great public service in giving the East Side a much-needed park.

ROETHE HELPS FARMERS

FARMERS of Wisconsin have reason to be gratified over the action of the Wisconsin senate in concurring in the state marketing bill in the form in which it passed the assembly.

At a meeting of the senate last week, several objectionable amendments which curtailed the powers of this bill were incorporated. The bill was held in the senate. To the credit of Senator Roethe, Fenimore, he it said that he led the fight to strike these objectionable provisions out of the bill and to help swing the senate in line to give the farmers such a measure as they desired. Senator Roethe is one of the men who has never been enthusiastically in favor of commissions. He believes that their powers should be curtailed and that there should be limits to safeguard their authority. When he found, however, that the farmers of Wisconsin believed that this is one measure that will help them, Mr. Roethe was found working early and late and made the crucial moves which put the bill through to the governor's table. Farmers will have occasion to remember Mr. Roethe.

Farmers should remember this roll call:

For the market commission bill—Anderson, Arnold, Bilgrien, Conant, Dennhardt, Huber, Kleist, Moran, Olson, Peterson, Ridgway, Roethe, Severson, Staudenmayer—14.

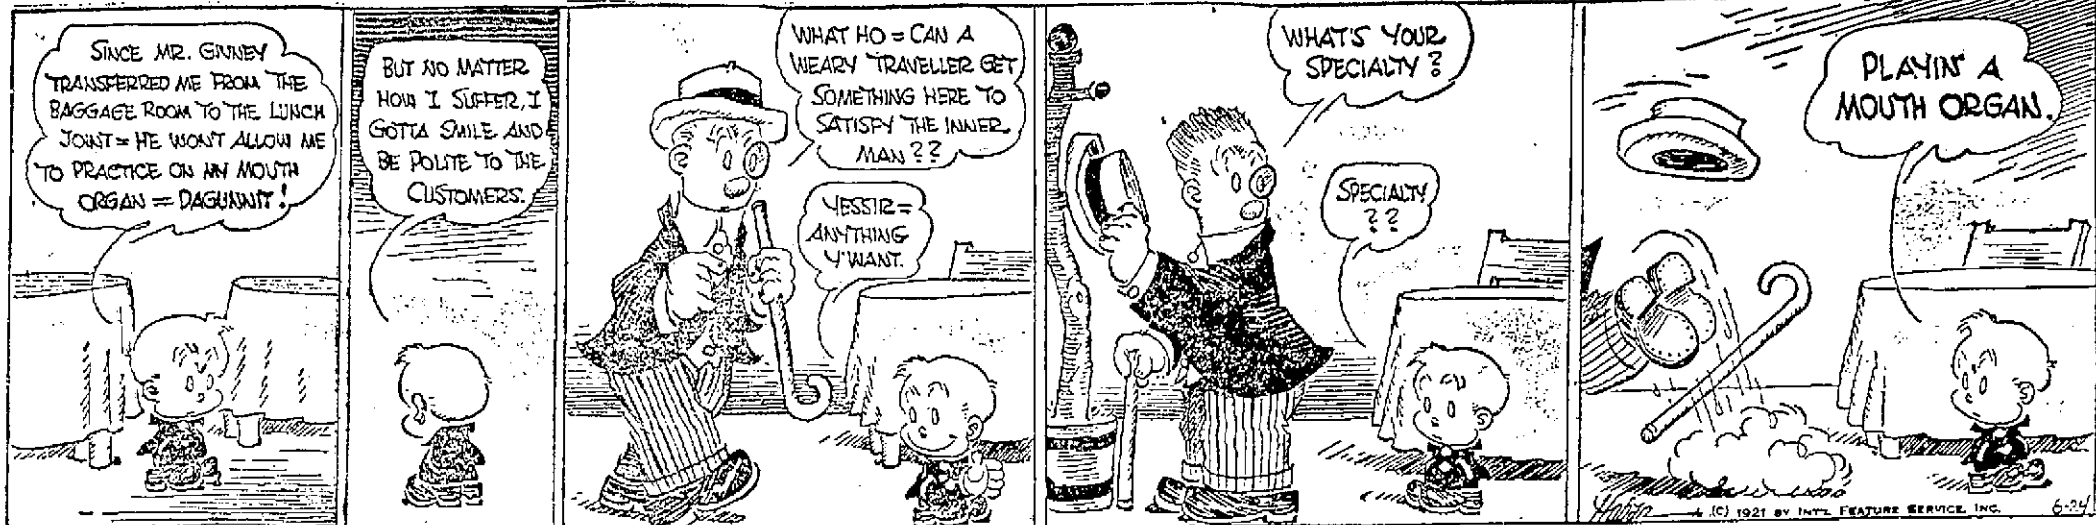

Against the market commission bill—Benfey, Buck, Burke, Clarke, Czerwinski, Kuckuk, Lange, Morris, Mulberger, Nye, Skogmo, Smith, Werden—13.

Voice of the People

PLEASE DON'T DO IT!

[To the Editor]—It is not a very patriotic policy or even a safe course of "statesmanship" to cast suspicion upon the president of the United States?

Harding asked the opinion of men of experience in large financial transactions about the terrible mess in which the whole world is now mixed up to the point of bankruptcy.

Surely those men could diagnose the case, and suggest proper treatment, quite as well as men whose attainments were along other lines.

Mr. Harding consults specialists, whose opinions are certainly more valuable than mine or (even opinions of Senator La Follette)—when it comes to getting out of a bad financial corner, and Mr. Harding did what I would do in his situation; he asked somebody who knew about financial affairs; and who had met with success because of experience and natural financial ability. (Probably when he is in need of advice about partisan politics, he may consult Bob and me!)

And it seems to be a very unwise and dangerous thing for any one to stir up rumor and hatred towards Mr. Harding because we may think he should do something different from the thing he does.

Violent attacks for political purposes, weaken the very foundation of our nation!

They effect not only the voters but the bomb thrower, the firebug, and the assassin.

The elements of upheaval do not need to be thus stimulated by suspicion cast upon Mr. Harding, as a "friend of Big Business."

Mr. Harding is president of the U. S., and not only the hobo class, the politicians, and the farmers; but the whole nation. This includes some men who have large fortunes, which are very useful in various ways, especially at tax time or when we want to borrow money.

All the Giteaus, Czolgosz and Booths are not extinct. Let us not stir them up by violent insinuations against public men.—M. P. Wheeler, Windsor, Wis.

As cunning as the fox

And twice as knave,

O tell me, tiny pest,

Can't you behave?

As the preying tiger leaps

Upon the unsuspecting deer,

You wing your way about

And lightly land upon my ear!

But though I swat and cuss

You show no fear.

Tonight, thou bug,

I'll get you once for all,

And e'er the morn

Brings forth the waking call

Your carcass shall be

Spattered on the wall.

Ah, then shall I rejoice

On your decease;

For when your devilish

Night maraudings cease

I'll find at last

Contentment, comfort, peace.

FOR A WHISKERLESS AMERICA

They tell us now that whiskers will no longer be on tap,

And a man is out of fashion who will wear them on his nap;

For the scientists condemn them as a parking place for mikes,

And they soon will be as scarce as dodo birds and high-wheeled bikes.

It is time some whiskered gentry had the courage and the grace

To crawl out of their ambush and meet people face to face.

For the bristling facial spruce has spoiled many a lady's dance,

And the barbers, economically, ought to have a chance.

Though the William Cullen Bryant have enjoyed a record run,

And the Greeleys have been nobly, we will say, their day is done,

Though it may be quite a blow to many billy-goated sports,

Their removal will reduce the price of beds and davenport.

The holes in Swiss cheese are larger than they used to be. That should furnish an excuse for another investigation.
